Weekly Update

January 18, 2016

On Sunday, Mike Moore helped us all out as usher, and Rev. Laura led the congregation through a Taize service of silent meditation, prayerful song, and responsive worship. As considered in our Contemporary Word and scriptural meditations during the Sunday prior, there is a time for releasing and taking in, for speaking and for listening; and we moved ahead with this thought and spiritual practice this week by opening our souls to the sounds of the Holy all around us. Our No Limits Choir sang beautifully for our time of special music, and we gathered together for an unscheduled Church Council meeting afterward to further spread the love of God through supportive care in our community.

Thanks to all who came together in worship, and I hope you each have a very safe and blessed week!

In God's Love,
Rev. Laura H.

We extend the open hand of Christ's love to any who would pass through our doors, regardless of age, faith, creed, race, nationality, special needs, marital status, financial or social status, gender identity or sexual orientation. We rejoice in our differences while inviting all to join our faith journey toward greater understanding and sincere mutual respect.
No matter who you are, we're glad you're here!

We are still collecting shoes for Soles for Souls, so bring your used shoes and drop them off in the box by the office. Shoes in any condition, even heavily worn or chewed by your new puppy, will be repurposed to help those in need.

If you use the portal, you can shop where you'd normally shop, and a percentage of your purchase amount is donated back to the church. Visit umcmarket.org and follow the prompts to sign up. Then all you have to do is sign in to their website, click on the store where you want to shop (amazon.com, Kohl's, Staples, Barnes & Noble among many others), and make your purchases as usual. The UMC Market app has updated so you have to go on their site and make a new account to continue to use it. People who already signed up for it should get an email letting them know they need a new account.
